And the only way to get CBDC universally accepted quickly is to efficiently manufacture consent as seen in the two preceding screenshots. Because when everyone has bought into his or her favorite crypto, the banksters have us exactly where they want US.

Let's face it, the dead giveaways of this stealthy NWO scheme to foist a national digital currency on the American people have been coming at US fast and furiously even before Trump's inauguration.

First there were the various proclamations Trump made about Bitcoin.

President-elect Trump says US will become 'Bitcoin superpower of the world'

Next, President-elect Trump starts pushing all cryptocurrencies.

Donald Trump wants to make U.S. the world's crypto capital

Then he rolls out his own $TRUMP meme coin which was soon followed by Melania launching her own $MELANIA meme coin.

$TRUMP 'Meme Coin' Has Turned Donald J. Trump Into One of the Richest Men in the World, Just as He Is Sworn in as 47th US President [article below]

Melania Trump launches her own cryptocurrency on the eve of her husband's inauguration as US president.

Do you see where this long planned and highly organized crypto black op is going?

Do you see just how meticulously choreographed and fastidiously orchestrated this meme coin psyop really is?

Do you see how the bankster-created Bitcoin was used to get this whole cash-killing project started?

Let's hope so, because once they take away cash it's only crypto going forward. As well as an ever-changing and life-wrecking social credit score for each and every person on the planet; that is, if you want to continue to eat and drink to live.

There's only one reason why Trump would have launched his own meme coin in such a crass and ill-timed manner, not that there is ever a good time to perform such an act of presidential folly: because the banksters told him to. By making such a bad move, surely he knew that he would suffer through horrible headlines like this:

WOW!!! Trump becomes the Grifter-in-Chief before he's even inaugurated.

However, Trump's bankster masters knew that his Inaugural Address would be so full of promises to the MAGA Movement that they would overlook his unparalleled plunge into unpresidential and perfidious conduct before he even entered the Oval Office.

However, the official roll-out of CBDC worldwide is only one piece of the next phase of the New World Order implementation plan. For the entire Global Economic & Financial System is now slated for a controlled demolition in order for the Financial Masters of the Universe to use their unfailing Ordo ab Chao to carry out the Great Taking as a precursor to the Great Reset.

But even those nefarious goals are subordinate to the most important objective that The Powers That Be (TPTB) have on their agenda throughout Trump's term. As follows:

Wise Up, People! No POTUS ever stops the build-out of the BEAST System.....

There is no other objective behind the New World Order agenda more essential than the global standardization of CBDC. Both the Great Reset and Great Taking can only occur with the worldwide roll-out of the much heralded Central Bank Digital Currency, however the financial controllers choose to do that nation by nation. In point of fact, the rapidly evolving tyrannical technocracy can only function as TPTB intend it to when the entire human race is happily using their respective digital currencies.

Which means that all of the countless cryptocurrencies currently being hawked with a vengeance — here, there and everywhere — are designed to do one thing above all: QUICKLY NORMALIZE THE USE OF DIGITAL CURRENCIES ON ALL 7 CONTINENTS.

Yes, the shiny gold Bitcoin token was also rolled out to move legions of gold bugs into becoming hordes of crypto-crazies, which it did. But the main purpose of Bitcoin, as well as all other cryptocurrencies, is to bridge the era of easily transactable hard cash and valuable precious metals to the long planned NWO epoch of utterly worthless digital currencies created by the banksters. That's where the Dogecoin huckster Elon Musk comes in.

$TRUMP 'Meme Coin' Has Turned Donald J. Trump Into One of the Richest Men in the World, Just as He Is Sworn in as 47th US President

Paul Serran | TheGatewayPundit.com We've finally come to the momentous, historic day of the inauguration of Donald J. Trump as 47th US President.

With everything that Trump and his die-hard supporters have endured for the last four years, certain aspects of this day seem like a dream come true.

And other associated events just strike us as fantastic, such as the arrival and surge in popularity of $TRUMP, the 'meme-coin' celebrating his return to the presidency.

The launch of $TRUMP on January 17th has made the incoming president a 'paper fortune' that propels him to the heights of fortune, as one of the world's richest men, right on the eve of his inauguration.

The Telegraph reported:

"Mr. Trump is sitting on a stack of digital tokens theoretically worth $43bn after investors and supporters piled in to the launch of his $Trump coin on Friday."

The token soared in value right after its launch and is now one of the world's most valuable cryptocurrencies.

“The 200m in circulation are worth a combined $10.7bn (£8.6bn), but the coin’s website said that 1bn tokens will be released in total over the next three years. The remaining 800m are still held by CIC Digital, which describes itself as an affiliate of the Trump Organization, and Fight Fight Fight LLC, a subsidiary.”

As I write this post, the $TRUMP coin is trading at approximately $55.31 USD, with the holdings worth approximately $44.22 billion.

It is not known how much President Trump will personally gain – but combined with his existing $7.2bn fortune he would be worth around $51.4bn.

“Securing that wealth appears unlikely. Meme coins are notorious for volatile price movements and traders seeking to ride their momentum to make quick profits by rapidly buying and selling the tokens.

The Trump coin itself rapidly fell from a high of $75.35 on Sunday to around half that several hours later, before recovering on Monday morning.”

First Lady Melania released her own meme coin on Sunday (19), and it has also shot up in value. The 192m Melania coins in circulation have a value of $2.2bn.

“The price of Bitcoin also hit an all-time high on Monday, rising above $109,000. Mr. Trump has described himself as the ‘crypto president’ and was heavily backed by the industry during the election.”
